17th California Indian Conference
SPIRIT OF THE STORY
October 10th, 11th, and 12th, 2002
Hosted by American Indian Studies Department
Palomar College, San Marcos, California
WELCOME TO THE HOMELAND OF THE LUISENO, KUMEYAAAY-DIEGUENO, CAHUILLA, AND CUPENO PEOPLE!

PALOMAR COLLEGE AND THE AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES DEPARTMENT
ALSO EXTEND WARM GREETINGS

"ELDER, TELL ME A STORY" AND SO BEGINS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR ORIGINS, WHO WE ARE, WHAT WE BELIEVE AND WHAT WE STRIVE TO BECOME. STORY IS EMBEDDED IN OUR HEARTS AND SOULS, WHEN THE ANSWERS OF SCIENCE ARE TOO PROSAIC OR UNFATHOMABLE, STORY PERMEATES OUR INNER BEING, UNRAVELS
THE KNOTS OF QUESTIONS, AND THROUGH SONG, DANCE, AND WORD WE FIND OUR PLACE. LIKE THE LUISENO CHILDREN OF OLD, WE CAN TAKE THE PULSATING GLOWING EMBERS OF FIRE AND CREATE A STORY THAT LINKS US WITH THE STARS AND THE EARTH.

FOR THE NEXT TWO AND A HALF DAYS, THE 17TH ANNUAL CALIFORNIA INDIAN CONFERENCE OFFERS AN ENVIRONMENT THAT WILL STIMULATE THE INTELLECT, NURTURE THE SOUL, AND DELIGHT THE SPIRIT WITH STORIES, STORIES ABOUT HISTORY, ART, MYTH, SCIENCE, LEARNING, LANGUAGE AND SONG. DRINK DEEPLY AND ENJOY.

THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF MANY INDIVIDUALS AND ORGANIZATIONS, WE ANTICIPATE A SUCCESSFUL CON-FERENCE. IN PARTICULAR, WORDS OF GRATITUDE BELONG TO THE AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES DEPART-MENT, THE CO-CHAIRS OF THE CIC CONFERENCE, LINDA LOCKLEAR AND DEBZE DOZIER, AND AIS ADMINIS-TRATIVE ASSISTANTS HENRIETTA MOORE AND MARTHA COLLINS.

WE ALSO THANK PATRICIA DIXON AND GABRIEL ESTRADA FOR THE PROGRAM CONTENT AND AD-PRO FOR THE PROGRAM LAYOUT AND PRINTING, AIS CHAIRMAN STEVE CROUTHAMEL FOR MAINTAINING THE WEBPAGE;
PAUL MIRANDA, STUDENT WORKER. MARTY HILES, VOLUNTEER ORGANIZER AND ALL HIS STUDENT ASSIS-
TANTS. MARLENE FOSSelman FOR THE T-SHIRTS,

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE BOEHM GALLERY FOR THEIR CONCURRENT EXHIBITION OF CONTEMPORARY SOUT-HERN CALIFORNIA INDIAN ART CURATED BY JOSEPH D. MORENO, Sr., ROSIE RAMIREZ AND

Edward D. Castillo is a Cahuilla and Luiseño Indian from Southern California. His academic training and graduate degrees are in U.S. Frontier History and American Anthropology. He was a founding member of the Native American Studies Department at both UCLA and Berkeley. He has taught Native American history and ethnography for over 30 years. His specialty is California Indian ethnography.

He has acted as a history consultant for numerous documentary films including Kevin Costner's "500 Nations", Ken Burns' "The West", and three documentary films about the 1969 occupation of Alcatraz Island - the last of these, _Alcatraz is Not an Island_ won the Native American Film Festival Grand Prize in 2000.

Currently Professor Castillo is the Chairman of Sonoma State University’s Native American Studies Department. During his teaching career he has won several honors and awards from the University of California and the California State University system for excellence in teaching and scholarship. He has written five books and published 24 articles/chapters in various professional journals and books.

On a personal note Ed has three children Sulematra, Cassandra and Andrew. He has recently expanded his household and now shares his home and heart with his bride, Kayt, and her daughter Evey.
I have been asked to write a few words about the history of the California Indian Conference. My training as a historian compelled me initially to organize this short essay in chronological order. But upon further reflection I decided what is most important is a few words about how unique this annual gathering has become.

California Indians and scholarly specialists of California Indians during the 1960s and 1970s had only Cahuilla leader Rupert Costo's American Indian Historical Society irregular symposiums to attend. They tended to be national in scope and by invitation only. More egalitarian and accessible to the general Indian population was Hupa and Yurok educational scholar David Resling Jr.'s California Indian Education Association (CIEA). David Resling pioneered educational reform and democratic inclusiveness through decades of CIEA annual conferences. The greater majority of these conferences focused on curriculum about Indians in public K-12 grades.

In 1980 my colleague and former Anthropology Professor Bill Simmons, UC Berkeley, assisted by publisher Malcolm Margolin, organized the first California Indian Conference (CIC). Modeled on the Algonquin Round Table format, academic specialists, from many disciplines, would meet and present their research based on a common topic. It was uncommon, for instance, for a California archaeologist to speak to a linguist, an ethnographer to a historian, and no one wanted to hear from an Indian. A few Indians attended the first years. Funded through UC Berkeley's Anthropology department grants and donations, the conference drew about a hundred participants.

Bill Simmons and Malcolm Margolin and a core of other Northern California writers and scholars continued to help organize and fund the conference over the next decade. It moved from University campus to campus. More and more California Indians attended and this changed the nature of the Conference. Now archaeologists were confronted relentlessly by native people about disinterment of our ancestors and the value to science of warehousing thousands of California Indian skeletons. Soon almost all archaeologists dropped out. As the number of California Indians increased the heavy emphasis on formal technical papers gave way to more the general and cross-disciplinary.

By the third CIC conference, a tradition of not charging registration fees for California Indians began. Of course there was no way to monitor this declaration. It simply became an honor system. Soon, the tradition of a banquet honoring significant people in the field of California Indian studies developed. I attended the organizing meeting after the third conference and vigorously advocated for welcoming California Indian scholars, and more importantly traditional California Indians and native cultural specialists.
THE CONFERENCES BECAME MORE AND MORE SUCCESSFUL. STATE AND FEDERAL AGENCY SPECIALISTS, WHO WORKED WITH INDIANS, BEGAN TO SHOW UP AND A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF CALIFORNIA INDIAN VIEWS AND CONCERNS DEVELOPED. ARCHAEOLOGISTS RETURNED AFTER THE NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE COMMISSION SECURED LEGISLATION TO PROTECT INDIAN BURIALS AND SACRED SITES. THESE LAWS REQUIRED ARCHAEOLOGISTS TO BE HIRED AND TO WORK WITH TRIBES WHEN SIGNIFICANT ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES WERE DISCOVERED. HECK, ARCHAEOLOGISTS BECAME OUR BEST FRIENDS, AGAIN.

IN THE 1990 PLANNING MEETING EVERYONE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA IF I ORGANIZED THE 1991 CIC ON MY CAMPUS, SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY. LIKE ALL GOOD IDEAS IT RAPIDLY DETERIORATED INTO NOTHING BUT HARD WORK. MY CAMPUS’S PRESIDENT AND GRANTS OFFICE COMMITTED ONE HALF THE FUNDING. MY STUDENTS AND I RAISED THE OTHER HALF SELLING FRY BREAD FOR ABOUT A YEAR. WE HONORED KATHERINE SAUBEL, RENOWNED CAHUILLA LINGUIST, AUTHOR, AND CO-FOUNDER OF THE MALIKI MUSEUM.

A FEW YEARS LATER I PREPARED AN EXCELLENT PAPER ON THE SAN GABRIEL MISSION INDIAN UPRISING LED BY A FEMALE TONGVA DOCTOR IN 1785 AND MISPLACED IT. I WAS IN A PANIC. I FINALLY WENT TO THE PODIUM AND APOLOGIZED FOR NOT HAVING MY PAPER, BUT WENT AHEAD AND JUST SUMMARIZED ON THE SPOT. TO MY CHAGrin AND AMUSEMENT LISTENERS TOLD ME THAT IT WAS THE BEST PRESENTATION THEY HAD EVER HEARD ME GIVE. THIS EXPERIENCE CHANGED MY PRESENTATION STYLE TO FIT THE AUDIENCE.

THESE PAST ELEVEN YEARS I HAVE ENJOYED ATTENDING THE CIC EVERY YEAR. I FREQUENTLY GIVE PRESENTATIONS AND ATTEND SESSIONS ON SUBJECTS FROM REPATRIATION TO LANGUAGE PRESERVATION, LEGISLATION AND CALIFORNIA INDIAN HISTORY. THESE AND OTHERS ARE THE THEMES OF INTEREST AND CONCERN OF CALIFORNIA INDIANS AND OUR FRIENDS. THIS IS WHAT THE CALIFORNIA INDIAN CONFERENCE HAS BECOME.

I AM HAPPY AND HONORED TO ATTEND THIS YEAR’S CIC ORGANIZED BY PALOMAR COLLEGE’S AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES DEPARTMENT AND BY MY FRIEND, COLLEAGUE, AND FELLOW TRIBESMAN PROFESSOR PATRICIA DIXON.

ED CASTILLO
"We Are Still Here" is the story of Katherine Siva Saubel and the Cahuilla Indians of Southern California, told through original Cahuilla legends, narratives and scenes from Mrs. Saubel's extraordinary life. Mrs. Saubel, the first Native American female to graduate from Palm Springs High School, is a respected tribal elder and international scholar, who has lectured throughout the world on the Cahuilla language and culture.

The play, written, directed and produced by Leigh Podgorski, features an all-Native American cast. The work premiered at the Gene Autry Museum of Western Heritage in Griffith Park. "We Are Still Here" has been presented at the Sherman Indian School in Riverside, California, UCLA through the American Indians Studies program, the NoHo International Theatre and Arts Festival, the Sanford Meisner Theatre, the Native California Cultural Awareness Conference at Cal State San Bernardino, the San Manuel Bingo and Casino, the California Indian Conference at Chaffey College in Rancho Cucamonga, the Theatricum Botanicum in Topanga, California, and at the Native Arts and Culture Conference at Idyllwild Arts Academy.

The cast: Kait Matthew; Delanña Studi; Marjorie Tanin; Michael Wise; Brian Wescott; Ernie Fragua (Ernie White Cloud)

____ I already have phone service. My number is: _____________________

Important: If you do not have phone service today, you will need to call Verizon toll-free at 1-800-483-4000 to order service before we can initiate the Native American Lifeline plan.

FOR QUALIFIED NATIVE AMERICANS LIVING OFF RESERVATIONS

Universal Lifeline Telephone Service is discounted phone service, available for Native American residents living off reservation in California whose annual household income meets the requirements listed below.

Annual household income is not more than the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Household Size</th>
<th>Annual Income</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1-2</td>
<td>$19,300</td>

<td>$4,600</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

There are two types of Lifeline service available in most areas:
- Flat Rate service provides unlimited local calling for $5.34 per month. You benefit if you make a high number of local calls each month.
- Message Rate service provides 60 untimed local calls each month for $2.85 per month. Additional local calls are 8 cents each. You benefit if you make a low number of local calls each month.

Other benefits... you also get a discount on Lifeline installation charges.

To sign up for Lifeline service or to order new service, call Verizon toll-free at 1-800-483-4000.
