

M.A. in Recreation Administration Program Course Alignment Matrix

Student Learning Outcome	Course
1. Analyze, synthesize, and apply knowledge within the discipline	RPT 700 RPTA 201 RHPM 611 RHPM 645 RHPM 699T or RHPM 699P
2. Apply appropriate research methods to address stakeholder and organizational needs	RHPM 611 RHPM 642 RHPM 699T or RHPM 699P
3. Effectively communicate with the various stakeholder groups	RPTA 201 RHPM 642 RHPM 645 RPT 810
4. Effectively apply decision-making and problem-solving methods within the discipline	RHPM 642 RHPM 645 RHPM 698 RHPM 697 RHPM 699T or RHPM 699P

Notes: The M.A. in Recreation Administration is jointly staffed with CSU, Sacramento (CSUS) and San Francisco State University (SFSU). Each campus maintains its own admission and exit requirements and sponsors two courses each year using the CSU system Intra-campus Concurrent Enrollment authority. Electives and culminating experiences are managed by the home campus. Each term begins and ends with a course-linked seminar at CSU, Sacramento. Synchronous webinars are offered weekly throughout the term.