* General Education Courses

( ) Prerequisites are listed in parentheses after course title

NOTE: All majors must complete CMST 131, 330, 331, 350 & 370 with a C- or higher prior to enrolling in most 400 level courses. Students should review individual 400 courses for specific prerequisites.

No more than 8 units of Forensics (CMST 339) may be counted toward total university requirements, only 3 units toward major.

Formal Minor Requirement: Communication Studies majors must complete a formal minor or a second major in a department outside of Communication Studies. Students must obtain their CMST major advisor's approval on their selection of a minor or a second major and meet with an advisor from their selected minor or second major. The CMST Program does not recommend using a Pathway minor to satisfy this requirement.

Advising Tips:

- Students are advised to take CMST 330 & 331 together and then take CMST 332 the semester after.
- Communication & Public Affairs Option students should complete CMST 350 & 370 at the same time; however if that is not possible, be sure to complete CMST 350 the semester after completing CMST 131, 330 & 331 with a C- or better. This will allow you to move into CMST 453.
- Regularly meet with a CMST faculty advisor. Go to THMA 201 to obtain an advisor and advising information.
- Complete course prerequisites in prescribed order.
- Monitor your Degree Progress Report (DPR). The DPR provides current information on all degree (GE, University, minor and major) requirements met and unmet.
- Declare your minor and meet with a minor adviser.
