COUNSELING INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE

For Marriage & Family Trainees and Master's in Social Work Interns

2022-2023 Academic Year

Three counseling intern/trainee positions at CSU, Chico WellCat Counseling Center are available starting Thursday, August 18, 2022. These are internship positions for the academic year.

POSITION DESCRIPTION:
Interns/trainees will be assigned to individual and group counseling determined by the needs of the WellCat Counseling Center (WCCC) and the interests of the interns/trainees, in consultation with the Training Coordinator. Each semester, interns carry an individual case load of 5-7 individual clients and have the opportunity to co-lead a group with senior staff. Interns/trainees receive training in conducting intake assessments, are allotted time for completing case notes, and attend WCCC staff meetings and scheduled training seminars.

- For MFT trainees, the position requires 20 hours weekly throughout the academic year.

- For MSW interns, the position requires 24 hours weekly throughout the academic year.

SUPERVISION AND TRAINING SEMINARS:

- One hour weekly individual supervision with a licensed member of the WCCC staff

- Two hours weekly group supervision with the Training Director

- Two hour weekly didactic clinical topics seminar.

- Interns/trainees will audio/video record all counseling sessions for review with supervisors

QUALIFICATIONS:
Must be a concentration year MSW student or third-year MFT student currently enrolled at California State University, Chico. Offer is contingent upon live scan clearance.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS: Interns/trainees MUST qualify for Work Study to receive the hourly wage of $15.40; not to exceed 20 hours a week. Interns/trainees do not work during holiday breaks (e.g. winter break, spring break etc).

SELECTION PROCEDURE:
The selection committee is comprised of the Training Director and two members of the WCCC staff. Selection will be based on the following materials provided by the candidate as well as an interview, which will include a brief demonstration of counseling skills via a live simulated counseling session.

Candidates should submit the following materials:

1. A 1-2 page cover letter addressing the following three areas:
    a. The experiences and qualifications that have prepared you to work in a college counseling center.
    b. Your professional aspirations and how you hope an internship with the WellCat Counseling Center would prepare you.
    c. A minimum of three current clinical growth edges that you hope are addressed through this internship.
2. Typed resume
3. A rating form from your individual practicum instructor (MFTs) or field placement instructor (MSWs)

Application due by 5:00 p.m. Friday, March 25, 2022

Interviews will be conducted towards the end of April for selected intern candidates.
