

Chico State Enterprises Announcements*Friday, February 11, 2022*Masks Still Required Indoors on Campus and Chico State Enterprises Properties

California's indoor mask mandate for vaccinated residents will expire on February 15. However, President Hutchinson announced yesterday that for now, masks are still required indoors on the Chico State campus. Please note that the indoor mask requirement will remain in effect on all Chico State Enterprises properties as well.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.
