Research Integrity and Compliance Resources

Dear campus community,

In August, Faculty Affairs and Success introduced their new Research Integrity and Compliance webpage and SharePoint community site. Both were designed to bring together all aspects of research integrity and compliance, covering human subjects research, animal subjects research, and biosafety in research and training requirements.

Their new webpage can also be accessed from the CSE website sidebar menu:

Please see their announcement, "Updates on Research Integrity and Compliance", for more information.

Thank you,

CSE Management
