The Diversity Academy is an intensive two-week seminar aimed at bringing together faculty and staff to develop a shared understanding of equity, diversity and increase competencies in our educational offerings and diversity efforts.

Objectives:

- Develop best practices for synthesizing diversity in curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular activities
- Cultivate interests in applied research and funding opportunities in the field of diversity studies
- Establish an ongoing community discussion in which issues related to diversity can be addressed among colleagues across disciplines and divisions

All faculty and staff are encouraged to apply. Space is limited to 20 people.

The Diversity Academy is sponsored by the Office of Diversity and Inclusion, the divisions of Student Affairs, Academic Affairs, University Advancement, Business and Finance, and the Office of the President.
