Additional Requirements

A maximum of 3 units of transfer credit may be allowed in the certificate program. A grade-point average of 3.0 must be earned for courses required for the certificate program. At least a B- must be earned in each course in the certificate program before the certificate is awarded.

Students accepted into the MA program in English or in Teaching International Languages may also complete the certificate if they so desire. In this case, courses counted toward the MA may also be counted toward the certificate.

Teachers who have completed ENGL 530 (Northern California Writing Project, invitational) for six units may substitute these units for ENGL 431 in the core and one additional elective course.
