

Quick Reference Guide for Faculty with Distressed Students

There is an immediate physical threat to someone in the classroom or office.

Step into the hallway and call University Police at 530-898-5555. The CARE team may be looped in through the University Police.

There is someone in extreme mental or emotional distress.

End class early, walk the student to the counseling center, contact the CARE Team at 530-898-5093 and/or care@csuchico.edu

There is no threat, but a student is being disruptive and preventing the class from continuing.

End class early, contact your Department Chair and the CARE team at 530-898-5093 and/or care@csuchico.edu.

All other issues

Finish class and contact CARE at 530-898-5093 and/or care@csuchico.edu after class.

Scan this QR Code to learn
When and How to Make a
Counseling Referral

For any concerns related to Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Exploitation, Dating/Domestic Violence, Stalking, a Prohibited Consensual Relationship, Discrimination, Harassment or Retaliation, remember that the EODR Office is here to help. Please get in touch with them directly at 530 898-4949 and titleix@csuchico.edu.