

Pathway Coordinator Elections and Replacements (approved 11/30/12)

1. Five Pathways will elect coordinators each year for two-year terms.
 - a. Food Studies, Global Development Studies, Great Books & Ideas, Health & Wellness, and Science, Technology & Values will hold elections Spring 2013.
 - b. Diversity Studies, Ethics Justice & Policy, Gender & Sexuality, International Studies, and Sustainability Pathways will hold elections Spring 2014.
2. Every department that has a course in the pathway including associated Foundation courses will have a vote.
 - a. If a department has multiple courses in a pathway, they still only receive one vote.
 - b. If a course is taught in multiple pathways, the department has one vote in each pathway election.
 - i. The CAB chair will break all ties.
 - c. Elections will be supervised by the CAB Chair.
3. CAB will notify the University community of pathway elections one month prior to the election through an email to all University employees and Campus Announcements.
 - a. Any tenured and tenure-track faculty member may pursue a position as a pathway coordinator.
 - b. Elections will take place on the last Friday in April.
 - i. All pathway coordinators will serve out their terms through the academic semester.
 - ii. Newly elected pathway coordinators should attend at least one CAB meeting as guests to become familiar with CAB and its functions.
 - iii. The CAB Chair will meet with the incoming pathway coordinators for orientation before the first CAB meeting of the academic year.
4. Replacements of pathway coordinators due to sabbaticals, alternative appointments, illness, and other reasons:
 - a. Replacement faculty will be sought out by the faculty member taking leave (in coordination with other pathway coordinators and/or the CAB Chair).
 - b. The replacement coordinator will be voted on by full CAB.
 - c. The CAB Chair will break all ties.
 - d. The replacement faculty member will receive the course buyout and any other compensation during his/her time of service.

- e. The elected pathway coordinator will resume his/her service upon completion of the sabbatical or other cause for leave at the beginning of the next academic semester, unless his/her term is up.