- Kitchen towels and sponges
- Potholders
- Mop, broom and dustpan
- Cleaning supplies

WHAT STAYS HOME

The following items are not permitted in University Housing. Of course, this is not a complete list, just some of the most common things that wind up in the car or van for the ride back home.

- Pets (except fish, and tanks must not exceed 5 gallons)
- Hot plates/electric skillets: Any cooking with an open heating element
- Percolator
- Oil popcorn poppers
- Vacuums (units are available at the front desk of each hall)
- Refrigerators
- Halogen lamps
- Extension cords
- Sun lamps
- Electric blankets
- Weapons of any type
- Candles/Incense/Potpourri burners
- Electric space heaters
- Air conditioner
- Toaster ovens
- "George Foreman" grills & their clones
- Microwaves
- Water beds
- Dartboards
- Contact paper or wall paper
- Nails, screws, other types of fastener hardware
- Outlet adapters
- Alcohol or alcohol related decorations
- Fireworks

Use this simple rule of thumb: leave at home if any item presents:

- A) a safety hazard
- B) an annoyance to others, or
- C) a likelihood of damaging your room or furnishings.

Possession of these items is a violation of University Housing policy. Residents who are in violation will be subject to the University conduct process.
