Floyd L. English
Natural Sciences Scholarship

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Application Deadline is February 15, 2019

Scholarships are available ONLY to College of Natural Sciences’ majors within the following departments: Biological Sciences, Chemistry & Biochemistry, Geological & Environmental Sciences, Mathematics & Statistics, Nursing & Pre-Nursing, Nutrition and Food Science, Physics and Science Education.

The deciding criterion for the award is the student’s potential for achievement in a profession that is science or mathematics based.

Your application packet must include the following items:

1. The completed application form. Applications are available at the College of Natural Sciences, Dean's office (Holt Hall, Room 285) or on the Floyd L. English Natural Sciences Scholarship website.
2. A one-page maximum autobiography (at least 200 words).
3. A one-page maximum letter discussing your personal and professional goals. Applicants whose letters exceed one page in length will be disqualified.
4. Three letters of recommendation (one-page maximum) from current or recent high school/college advisors, professors, mentors, employers, or business professionals.

These letters should address academic achievement, financial need, involvement in student activities, creativity, leadership, community service, professional goals and personal qualities that include the applicant’s potential for success and how this scholarship will make a difference.

We will accept electronic and faxed letters of recommendation however, they must be signed by the author. Please note that any recommendation letters exceeding one page in length will be discarded, and only three recommendation letters per applicant will be considered.

Selection of Recipients

For the 2019-2020 academic year, scholarships will be awarded to deserving students who are majoring in a program in the College of Natural Sciences. Any undergraduate in good academic standing in the College is eligible to apply this year. (If you already hold a bachelor’s degree, you are not eligible to apply.)

Semi-finalists will be chosen on the basis of their application materials and will be interviewed on the Chico State campus. If selected to be a recipient of this scholarship award, your attendance is required at the scholarship reception on the Chico State campus on Friday, April 12th, 2019.

How to Apply

Submit your completed application packet to the College of Natural Sciences, Dean's office by 5 pm on Friday, February 15, 2019.
