

California State University, Chico – School of Nursing Application Point System

Local preference points: In accordance with the California State University Chancellor’s Office, the School of Nursing is mandated to provide priority to local applicants. Effective for the Spring 2020 nursing application, three priority points will be given to applicants who have graduated from a high school or completed a minimum of 30 transferable units at a community college within local admission area counties as defined in our BSN Program Information and Statistics page. Consequently, the total points possible for applicants eligible for local priority points is 103 points. Applicants who have completed a minimum of 30 units at CSU, Chico at the time of application will be awarded three local preference points. Applicants who have already earned this advantage through their local admission area status are not eligible for additional points.

All eligible applications are reviewed for points. Applications of 80 points or higher will be ranked. The 40 applicants with the highest number of total points are selected for admission. To aid in estimating your total points, use our point evaluation tool at <https://apps.csuchico.edu/nursing>. Please note the Self Evaluation Points Calculator is for estimation purposes only.

Top Two Science Grades and Top Two Foundation Grades – 60 points possible

If more than two courses have been completed in the prerequisite science or foundation courses, the two highest grades of each category will be used to calculate admission points.

- Points for Science Course Grades (Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Microbiology). The two best science grades are each multiplied by 5 - maximum of 40 points.
- Points for Foundation Course Grades (Oral Communication, Written Communication, Critical Thinking, Statistics). The two best foundation grades are each multiplied by 2.5 - maximum of 20 points.

Grade points	Science grade points (x 5)	Foundation grade points (x 2.5)
A = 4.0	20.00	10.00
A- = 3.7	18.50	9.25
B+ = 3.3	16.50	8.25
B = 3.0	15.00	7.50
B- = 2.7	13.50	6.75
C+ = 2.3	11.50	5.75
C = 2.0	10.00	5.00

Completion of Co-requisites – 4 points possible

One point will be given for each co-requisite course completed with a passing grade reported on an official transcript at the time of application. It is not necessary to attach unofficial transcripts to the documents section of your NursingCAS application to receive these points.

The four co-requisites are:

- 1) Nutrition
- 2) Child Development or Human Development or Human Life Span Psychology
- 3) Principles of Psychology

NOTE: To be considered for the following foreign language, volunteer, and work experience points, you must attach your verification documents to the DOCUMENTS section of your NursingCAS application. Absence of this attached documentation will result in zero points.

Foreign Language – Up to 4 points possible

NEW! EFFECTIVE WITH THE SPRING 2019 NURSING APPLICATION, ALL SECOND LANGUAGES (BEYOND ENGLISH) WILL BE GIVEN EQUAL CONSIDERATION. This includes American Sign Language, Native American languages, and any foreign language.

Only one language may be used for points. To be considered for language points, the last language course must be completed within five years of application to the School of Nursing. Courses must reflect your consecutive progress to the next level of the language. Language courses in progress at the time of application will not be considered in the determination for points.

- Fluency (4 points).

For the language you speak, upload to your NursingCAS application an official language evaluation report or written letter from a high school, junior college or university language instructor. The evaluation report or verification letter should be on official school/business letterhead, signed and dated. The verbiage of the document must indicate that, upon personal evaluation by the instructor, you are a native speaker of the language or have the ability to converse with native speakers at a normal conversational level. The word “fluent” must be in the documentation to describe your level of proficiency. Verifying your level of written ability is not required for these points.

- Intermediate level proficiency (3 points):

Upload to your NursingCAS application an official language evaluation report or a written verification letter from a high school, junior college or university language instructor. The evaluation report or verification letter should be on official school/business letterhead, signed and dated. The verbiage of the document must indicate that, upon personal evaluation by the instructor, you speak at an “intermediate level proficiency”; or

- 1) Attach a college transcript reflecting at least two years (four completed semesters) of a foreign language; or
- 2) Attach a high school transcript reflecting three years of a foreign language; or
- 3) Attach a combination of a high school transcript reflecting two years of a foreign language, and a college transcript reflecting one year (two semesters) of a progressively higher college level course in the same language.

Volunteer Experience – 1 point possible. Volunteer hours do not need to be healthcare related. Experience must be 60 or more hours of unpaid or non course-related service within three years of application to the School of Nursing. Document hours with a written letter on official school/business letterhead or an official agency record indicating the type and duration of the service (including total number of hours) and signed by a supervisor or representative of the entity who can attest to your hours. Your volunteer hours cannot be for a family member. Upload your document to the documents sections of your NursingCAS application.

Work Experience – 4 points possible.

You will receive points for only one category. Points will be awarded from the category listed below which results in the highest point value.

All point categories must be verified by current certification from certifying agency, if applicable, and/or letter from employer on letterhead. This certification must be attached to the DOCUMENTS section of your NursingCAS application. The review committee will not look up this information on your behalf.

The following are examples of how points are typically allocated, although final point allocations are determined on a case-by-case basis by the Nursing Admissions Committee. Decisions of the Nursing Admissions Committee are final.
