The University

California State University, Chico is a fully accredited, state-supported member of a 23-campus CSU system. The university is a residential campus serving a diverse student body of approximately 16,000.

Founded in 1887, CSU, Chico offers undergraduate and graduate programs in the Colleges of Behavioral and Social Sciences; Communication and Education; Computer Science, Engineering and Construction Management; Humanities and Fine Arts; Natural Sciences; Business; and Agriculture.

As a comprehensive university serving Northern California and other regions nationally and internationally, our first priority is the education of our students. We are committed to assisting students in their search for knowledge and understanding and to prepare them with the attitudes, skills and habits of lifelong learning in order to assume responsibility in a democratic community and global society.

The Community

With a population of nearly 110,000, Chico is located in the Sacramento Valley near the foothills of the Sierra Nevada. It is 180 miles northeast of San Francisco and 90 miles north of Sacramento and offers a reasonable cost of living compared to metropolitan areas.

Chico retains the charm of a small town while offering medical services, excellent public and private schools, and many cultural and recreational activities. The city’s Bidwell Park, one of the largest municipal parks, extends from the city center along a creek deep into the foothills and surrounding canyons. Assistant Professor of Petrology

Department of Geological and Environmental Sciences
College of Natural Sciences

CSU, Chico is committed to enriching its educational environment and its culture through the diversity of its staff, faculty, students, and administrators. Persons with interest and experience in helping to set and achieve goals relative to diversity and inclusion are especially encouraged to apply.

We proudly hold Hispanic Serving Institution Designation.

The Position: The Department of Geological and Environmental Sciences is searching for a tenure track Assistant Professor to start August, 2018. The position is contingent on funding. We seek an enthusiastic Petrologist to contribute to the hard-rock foundation in our B.S. Geology and M.S. Geoscience programs. The department is committed to providing a rigorous curriculum for the B.S. in Geology that focuses on maintaining a strong petrographic component while also expanding our analytical capabilities.

The position requires excellence in teaching and advising, professional and scholarly research achievements, and a commitment to service to the University. Additional desirable attributes include a successful grant record and established ties to research institutions, mining industries, or government agencies.

Minimum Qualifications: The minimum education requirement for appointment to this position is a Ph.D. in Geology, Earth Science or a related field. Degree must be conferred at time of application.

Preferred Qualifications: Candidates should be enthusiastic about working hands-on with a diverse group of undergraduate students and developing connections/mentoring for applied geology. Experience teaching at the undergraduate or graduate level, employment in economic geology, and experience with modern instrumentation are preferred qualifications beyond the minimum. Candidates should demonstrate the potential to conduct externally funded research and publish original manuscripts.

Responsibilities: This tenure-track position carries responsibilities in the areas of teaching General Education, Igneous and Metamorphic Petrology, Optical Mineralogy, Economic Geology, and general geology; advising research students; and maintaining professional development. Teaching assignments are based upon qualifications and interests of the individual and the needs of the department.

Salary: Salary commensurate with education and experience.

The Department: The Department of Geological and Environmental Sciences offers B.S. degrees in Geology and Environmental Sciences as well as M.S. degrees in Environmental Sciences and Geosciences. The department continues to grow and currently serves over 200 majors and more than 25 graduate students. Faculty and students are actively involved in external research grants and service contracts. More information may be viewed at http://www.csuchico.edu/geos/index.shtml.

Closing Date: The application period ends on June 26, 2018.

How to Apply: All applicants must complete the Application for Academic Employment Form, which is available on-line at http://www.csuchico.edu/oapl/Combined%20App.pdf to be submitted with curriculum vitae or resume, complete set of transcripts, three letters of recommendation to:

VOLUNTARY SELF-IDENTIFICATION FORM FOR EMPLOYMENT APPLICANTS

Protected Veterans.

Definition
This employer is a Government contractor subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans’ Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans. These classifications are defined as follows:

A “disabled veteran” is one of the following:

- A veteran of the U.S. military, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who, but for the receipt of military retired pay, would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or
- A person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

A “recently separated veteran” means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran’s discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, naval, or air service.

An “active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran” means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, naval, or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

An “Armed forces service medal veteran” means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, naval, or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA - the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor’s Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll-free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

Self Identification
If you believe you belong to any of the categories of protected veterans listed above, please indicate by checking the appropriate box below. As a Government contractor subject to VEVRAA, we request this information in order to measure the effectiveness of the outreach and positive recruitment efforts we undertake pursuant to VEVRAA.
