

PUBLIC HEALTH

With a degree in public health.....

Public health is a broad, field with many career opportunities. You can chose your future career based on the population, work setting, or topic. For example, you could work with children, teenagers, adults, the elderly or another special population. You could specialize in healthy behaviors, harm reduction, or a specific topic. The possibilities are endless.....

Job titles

Job titles of our recent graduates include:

- Community Education Specialist
- Coordinator of Health Promotion
- Environmental Health Technician
- Family Planning Counselor
- Health Educator
- Medical Supply or Pharmaceutical Sales Representative
- Project or Program Coordinator

Job outlook:

- See yourself in a public health career: <https://www.cdc.gov/stem/careers/index.html>
- American Public Health Association: <https://www.apha.org/>

Many of our students go on for higher education:

- Master in Public Health
- Dental Hygienist
- Medical Doctor
- Physician Assistant
- Radiological Technician
- Registered Nurse
- Ultrasound or MRI Technician

Settings:

- Community-based organization
- County health departments
- Health insurance companies
- Hospitals
- Medical settings
- Schools
- State health departments
- Non-profit organizations

For more information:

Visit our website:
<https://www.csuchico.edu/phha/>