

Transition Feedback

California State University Chico

October 2023

Transition Survey of Campus Stakeholders

1. What are you most proud of at Chico State?
2. What is important for the University to focus on in the next 18 months?
3. What is important for the University to focus on in the next 3-5 years?
4. What do you perceive to be the strengths and assets of the institution today?
5. What are the issues and concerns that you hope will be addressed in the future?
6. Where do you hope to see Chico State in 5 years?

Response Profile

Primary Relationship:
Undergraduate Student	158
Graduate Student	51
Faculty	69
Adjunct Lecturer	13
Staff	118
Administrator	26
Alumni	434
Community Member/Donor	34
Employer	7
Other	2
Parent	20
Retiree	12
Total	944

Common Themes Across Constituencies and Questions

Priorities to Address:

- Recruitment and enrollment
- Campus safety
- Surrounding community safety and development
- Restoring campus morale and trust
- Faculty and staff compensation
- Faculty and staff retention
- Student success and increasing graduation rate

What are you most proud of?

Strongest Themes – Undergraduate and Graduate Students

Theme	Frequency
Academic programs
Beautiful campus
Campus community / environment
College town
Learning experiences
Faculty / teaching
Affordable education
Staff

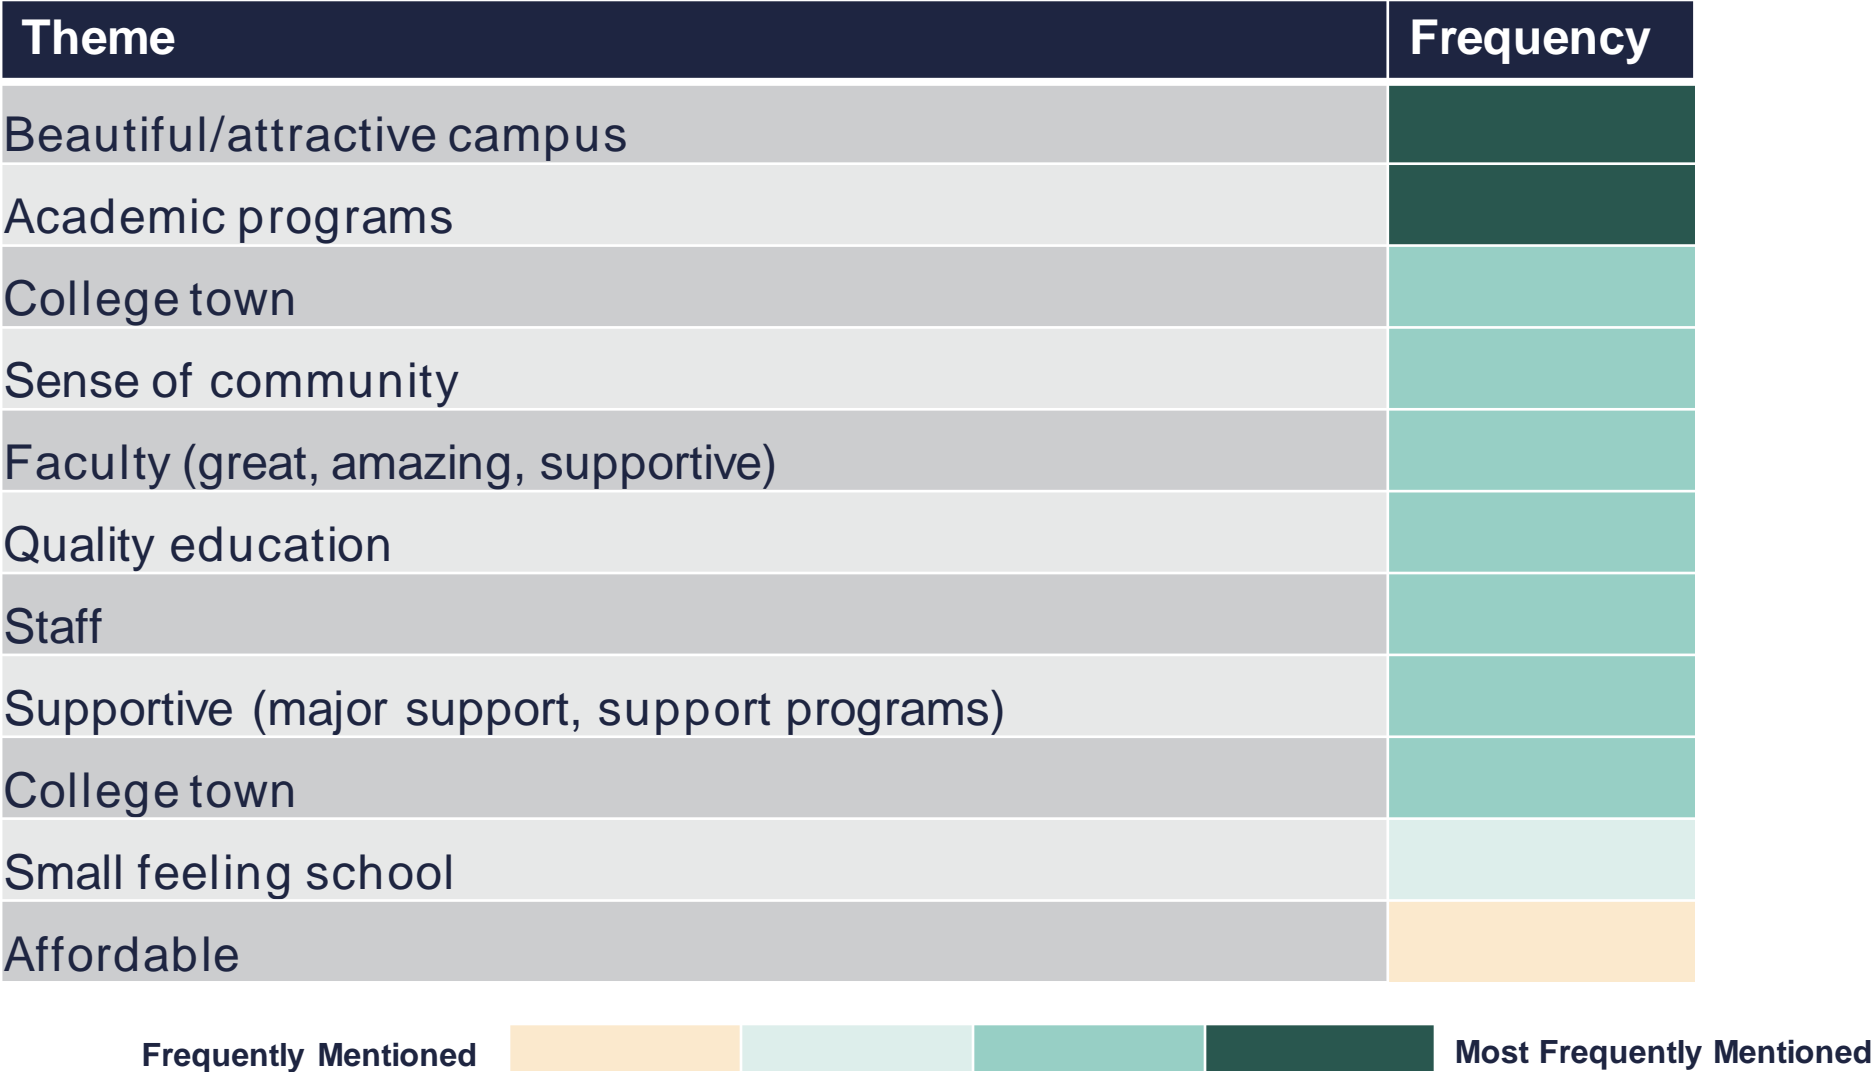

Frequently Mentioned

Most Frequently Mentioned

What do you perceive to be the strengths and assets of the institution today?

Strongest Themes – Undergraduate and Graduate Students

What are the issues and concerns that you hope will be addressed in the future?

Strongest Themes – Undergraduate Students

Theme	Frequency
Campus safety
Faculty hiring
Student support/ helping students
Student costs / debt
Party school reputation
Faculty conduct / professionalism standards
Recruitment/enrollment
Staff development

Frequently Mentioned  Most Frequently Mentioned

What are the issues and concerns that you hope will be addressed in the future?

Strongest Themes – Graduate Students

Theme	Frequency
Recruitment/enrollment
Graduate programs
Party school reputation
Student life

Frequently Mentioned

Most Frequently Mentioned

What is important for the University to focus on in the next 18 months?

Strongest Themes – Undergraduate and Graduate Students

Theme	Frequency
Campus safety
Tuition increases (avoiding) / fees
Student support/ resources
Faculty compensation
Adding graduate programs
Supporting at risk students (low income, housing insecure)
Enrollment

Frequently Mentioned  Most Frequently Mentioned

What is important for the University to focus on in the next 3-5 years?

Strongest Themes – Undergraduate and Graduate Students

Theme	Frequency
Safety
Community involvement
Student diversity / underrepresented populations
Student programs
Creating community on campus
Quality education
Adding graduate programs

Where do you hope to see Chico State in five years?

Themes fairly consistent across groups

- Improved campus climate / positive and vibrant campus
- Top choice university
- Student Housing
- Online education
- Affordable
- Quality education
- Exceeding enrollment goals / strong enrollment
- Respected/employable graduates
- Graduating students
- Graduate Programs
- Diverse student body
- Leading public university
- Surrounding community neighborhoods improvement
- Community service opportunities

JOIN US!

Restorative Circles to Discuss Title IX and Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation at Chico State

Students, faculty, and staff are invited to small, confidential group discussions to build relationships, address challenges, and start healing.

Topics will focus on:

- Infrastructure and Resources (BMU 303)
- Strengthening Internal Protocols (BMU 304)
- Communications (BMU 309)
- Prevention and Education (BMU 312)
- Other Conduct of Concern (BMU 314)

Tuesday, November 14 | 1-3 p.m.
Bell Memorial Union

Facilitated by members of the Chico State
Restorative Justice Initiative and Implementation Team.

Light refreshments will be served in BMU 309 from 12:30–1 p.m.

Scan the code for more information ►

Thank you!

