Explore the Possibilities

Section 4.1

Concept Information for Funding Searches

In order for the RESP Information Specialist to complete a search of possible funders for your project, it is necessary that you provide the information in the document below. The document can be found at the RESP Web site and filled in there. Forward it to the RESP Information Specialist at spinfospec@csuchico.edu who will do the funding search for you. The RESP Information Specialist is also available to set you up on SMARTS, the SPIN Matching and Researcher Transmittal Service, which will result in e-mail notifications of funding opportunities in your research, teaching and service areas.

Concept Information for Funding Searches On-line Document
