Duties and Responsibilities
Chair of the Education Policy and Programs Committee (EPPC)
of the Academic Senate

The EPPC Chair is a critical member of the Academic Senate. The EPPC Chair leads one of the two standing committees of the senate. The EPPC Chair has many duties as generally referred to in the Constitution of the Academic Senate:

Constitution of the Academic Senate, Article Two: Section 2:

The duties of the Academic Senate as delegated to it by the Faculty shall be:

1. To formulate, recommend, review, and revise all academic, personnel, and professional policies, including fiscal policies related thereto, broadly and liberally defined.
2. To assure through well-established and well-defined channels of communication the maximum cooperation among all members of the university, in order that policy and administrative implementation shall be consonant.
3. To present through proper channels to the Trustees of the California State University and/or the Statewide Academic Senate of the California State University any appropriate recommendations relating to, but not limited to, those policy matters enumerated in Article II, Section I of the Constitution of the Faculty of California State University, Chico. Such recommendations may ask for amendment to or the elimination of any law, code section, regulation, or policy when the Faculty deems it to be in the general welfare of this, of any, or of all the campuses of the California State University.

Upon Taking Office:
As stated in the Constitution of the Academic Senate, Article 4, sec.1., “The newly elected Officers of the Academic Senate will take office the day following the last official graduation date at the end of the academic year.” This stipulation requires that the new officer work during the summer in order to prepare for taking office and becoming familiar with the new job.
