Jackie Faris-Rees Student Leadership Award 2020

Chico State Alumna Jackie Faris-Rees was president of Associated Students at Chico State in the late 1970s, a member of the Chico Unified District school board, a participant in the Chamber of Commerce and Butte Community Action Agency, and she dedicated her life to public service and education in many other ways. She was committed to coaching and mentoring students and was a leading advocate for Associated Students. Sadly, Jackie passed away from breast cancer in April 2000. This award was established to honor Jackie and to continue her legacy of developing and acknowledging excellent student leaders.

Award

One recipient will receive $2,300.

Eligibility

All CSU, Chico undergraduate students who have demonstrated significant and outstanding leadership on campus and in community will be considered.

Nomination Guidelines

Nominations may be submitted by current CSU, Chico faculty, staff members, and students. Please complete the nomination form and attach it to a letter of nomination that:

- Describes your nominee's outstanding leadership activities. Please be specific, noting events, dates, organizations, the individual's contributions, and how they aided the organization, event or situation
- Describes why you feel your nominee deserves this acknowledgement
- Includes additional materials such as news articles, other letters of support for the nominee, or a list of the nominee's previous accomplishments, if relevant.

Selection Process

Nominations will be reviewed by a committee representing Student Affairs, Financial Aid and Scholarship, and University Advancement. Winners and nominators will be notified by April 1, 2020.

Presentation of Award

The Jackie Faris-Rees Student Leadership Award will be presented at the Student Leadership Awards Reception on April 24, 2020.
