To the respondent: Effective credential candidates should enter our programs with certain dispositions and continue to develop those dispositions through the experiences provided in our professional programs. Please mark an “x” in the box that represents your rating of the dispositions, keeping in mind the candidate’s current program level. For explanations of each performance level and disposition, please see the rubric on the back of this form to guide you in your ratings. The purpose of this form is to guide and inform program faculty in their acceptance decisions and to monitor professional growth throughout the credential program.

Disposition	Level

Social and Ecological Justice: The candidate seeks opportunities to work and interact with those of different backgrounds, confronts use of negative stereotypes and language in interactions with others and promotes equitable practices. The candidate acts on the belief that all children can learn, sets challenging expectations, and serves as an advocate for social and ecological justice as described in the SOE conceptual framework.
Effective Communication: The candidate facilitates positive conversations with peers, professionals, families and/or community members, and adapts written and oral communication to situations. The candidate demonstrates integrity and diplomacy in communication, and uses non-verbal communication effectively.
Self-Reflection and Critical Thinking: The candidate is committed to self-reflection and seeks out suggestions for growth. The candidate proactively identifies potential problems and a range of solutions that are applied appropriately and articulates multiple perspectives independently.
Professional Ethics: The candidate has an impeccable reputation for always being truthful and honest in dealing with others and is described as a model of integrity. The candidate maintains confidentiality and/or student anonymity, demonstrates and advocates for equitable treatment of others and initiates preventative methods to protect others from conditions that interfere with learning or are harmful to their health and safety.
Professional Development: The candidate maintains and continually revisits professional growth and is highly engaged in professional development. The candidate provides leadership and/or is an advocate for individual students or the teaching profession.
Professional Responsibility: The candidate plans in advance for requirements and deadlines and takes responsibility for meeting program, degree, and certification requirements. The candidate recognizes the importance and purpose of policies and respects their intent.
