1. Logos
1.1 Overview

A comprehensive update in 2021 refreshed all official University logos in a holistic way. Together, they unite our identity and create an instantly recognizable look. Familiar but evolved, sophisticated but personable, each visual has creative nuances that reflect our rich history, Wildcat personality, exceptional student success, and enduring commitment to create a better tomorrow.

Proper and appropriate usage of these elements should always be the most consistent component in our communications. While our logos, marks, and seal have evolved over the University’s long history, there is a framework that organizes their usage based on strategic and visual connections to Chico State.

These marks can each be used on their own, or in approved combinations. All artwork is provided as .EPS files, which are vector-based files that can generally be enlarged and reduced without diminishing image quality. An EPS file can only be opened directly in a vector-based application such as Adobe Illustrator.

To access these files, visit www.csuchico.edu/style-guide.

The Associated Students logo is managed by AS. Contact asmarketing@csuchico.edu for more information.
1.2 Institutional Mark

The Wildcat is the foundation of the University’s visual identity and the most commonly used graphic mark.

Designed to honor Lynx rufus californicus, our Wildcat mascot, it is also an enduring symbol of our cherished natural environment and honors our connection to the ancestral lands of the Maidu and Mechoopda people, upon which our institution is built.

Looking brightly toward the future, we seek out and embrace opportunity. With a firm foundation, like the basalt bedrock that grounds our region, we have the confidence to take action daily and dare to do it our own way.

The Institutional Logo is intended for all applications such as marketing communications, student-facing collateral, and college and department materials. It is used in official college and department logos, and may be used as design element on sanctioned apparel, marketing fliers, or newsletters. It should only appear in the Signature Colors.

Design files can be accessed online in multiple formats and in conjunction with the University wordmark. Contact University Communications if other configurations are needed.

1.3 Ceremonial Seal

University seals are common marks of academia, associated with institutions of higher learning for centuries.

Our University Seal is comprised of several key elements: the year of Chico State’s founding in 1887; the University motto of “Today Decides Tomorrow;” our Wildcat mascot; decorative columns and arches in the architecture of its oldest buildings; and the oak tree, which was a staple for the Mechoopda and remains a tireless symbol of unity and wisdom.

As the formal symbol of the University, the official seal is used selectively and with the distinction appropriate for what it represents.

Examples include diplomas, certificates, or medals given on behalf of the University, programs for presentations, collateral for formal events, and on official architectural signage.

The University Seal is not for casual use. It should not be used as a department logo or design element on unsanctioned apparel, marketing fliers, or newsletters. Nor should it appear in conjunction with other logos or elements.

Use of the seal must be approved by University Communications and the Office of the President in advance.

Minimum Use

No maximum usage restriction. Minimum usage is 0.5 inches wide.

1/4 of the height of the seal is used to create the clear space around the mark. Nothing should be placed in this area.
The athletic mark vividly and immediately conveys the University identity and furthers our identity as Wildcats.

The Wildcat is built for speed and always prepared to pounce on the competition. Proud, distinct, and adaptable, our athletics identity is a worthy symbol of the championship culture built and sustained by our student-athletes, coaches, and staff of the past and present.

Our student-athletes train to win—in the classroom and on the field—with a fierce commitment to continuous improvement in order to make a positive impact on the team and the world. Wildcats roar in battle. They roar in celebration. They roar for one another. They are loyal to each other and to the University. Look a little closer and you’ll notice a “C” in the snarl, signifying Chico. They roar for all of us!

The Athletics Logo is intended for all applications but especially all things Athletics as well as student-facing collateral and college and department materials. It may be used as a design element on sanctioned apparel, marketing fliers, or newsletters. The institutional logo and ceremonial seal should not be used in athletic applications.

For more information, contact University Communications or the Associate Director of Athletics at 530-898-6470.
1.5 Big “C” Spirit Mark

The Big C Spirit Mark pays tribute to the honors athletics association Block C Club, as well as the letters earned by student-athletes for their years of competition. It’s also a tribute to the first letter of our name—Chico—and our state—California, and aims to evoke a sense of pride, loyalty, and tradition.

Our spirit mark is the most informal of our logos, created to encourage school spirit and celebrate the student experience. It is available for use across the entire University community, and is also a secondary logo for Athletics programs. It can be used on a wide range of informal materials for student groups, athletics and intramural teams, merchandise and web applications.

2. Institutional Logos and Wordmarks
2.1 Overview

The institutional logo and wordmark are the graphic representation of the University name and can be used in all University marketing materials. It can also be combined with college and department names.

While both are acceptable, the full name—California State University, Chico—is typically reserved for more formal applications, and the common name—Chico State—can be used for most references to the University, as it is the name by which our students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community most often refer to the University.

Together, they work in approved combinations to create lockups in a variety of shapes to best meet visual needs.

Consistent use of these lockups creates awareness of and loyalty to the Chico State identity. Always use approved artwork.
2.2 Wordmarks

The institutional wordmarks work in approved combinations to create lockups or can be used on their own on certain applications. Consistent use of these wordmarks creates awareness of and loyalty to the Chico State identity. Always use approved artwork.

6. Logo Colors
6.1 Primary Color Palette

Chico red, cornerstone gray, black, and white comprise Chico State’s primary color palette and represent our longstanding traditions and identity. They should be the dominant colors used in official communications when the project allows for color.

Chico red should be the most prominent color used for large color fields and works well for headlines, subheads, and pull quotes.

Balance and harmony are the goal when using color. Too much red or black can feel harsh, which is why we provide gray and white as an acceptable use. Use all color conversions where applicable.

6.2 Outlined Mark Usage

The Sticker version of a mark should be used in two different cases:

1. When the color of the background matches parts of a mark and causes them to blend in, disappear or vibrate.

2. When a mark needs to reverse out in white.

All marks and lockups have an outlined version in the assets library. DO NOT REVERSE MARKS, ALWAYS USE THE OUTLINED VERSION.
6.3 One-Color Seal

In cases where only one color is being printed, use only approved one-color seals. If the seal is being printed on color, use the outlined version.
6.4 2-Color Athletic Mark

The 2-color athletic mark uses a lighter gray (PMS Cool Gray 5) but there may be cases where a three-color print job isn’t possible. In those instances, a 55% screened back version of the darker gray (PMS Cool Gray 9) should be used instead.
6.5 Black and White Usage

In cases where only black and white is being used, use only approved black and white marks. If the marks are being printed on black, use the outlined version.
7. Logo Typography
Whether in campus signs, brochures, or emails, consistent typography unifies and clarifies our identity.

The designated primary typeface for Chico State is Chronicle Display.

This face is only used as a display face and not as a text face in official communications and print collateral, or locked up with the icon.
7.2 Secondary Typography

The designated secondary for Chico State is Gotham. Sans serif fonts generally convey a more casual feel, but are more legible in print and on screen.

This typeface can be used in all of its available weights and styles as headline or a text or secondary face in other official communications and print collateral.

When a heavier weight is desired for various communications, it is important to switch to a heavier version, rather than selecting the program’s bold function, which alters the font.

7.3 Athletic Typography

The designated font for Chico State Athletics is Lubalin Graph. This slab serif typeface has a bold, collegiate-look and works well on silkscreened apparel and embroidery.

This typeface is only used as display type and not as text in official communications and print collateral, or locked up with the icon.

When a heavier weight is desired for various communications, it is important to switch to a heavier version, rather than selecting the program’s bold function, which alters the font.

9. FAQ
9.1 FAQ

Q Why do I need to follow the logo guidelines?
A A memorable and effective identity takes years to build, yet, it can quickly erode through a failure to protect and accurately implement the elements that define it. The elements included in this guide highlight the key graphic tools available to represent and express a unified image to the world. Whether you’re producing a brochure, a website, a grant proposal, or a banner, incorporating the new Chico State Logo Standards will ensure that our image will retain its impact and consistency for years to come.

Q I’m not sure which mark to use. What is the best option?
A In most cases, the best choice is the institutional mark, the Wildcat. It is the most prominent mark in our visual system and the one that will most quickly and clearly identify us to audiences we are trying to attract. University Communications can answer any questions you may have.

Q May I create my own custom icon, wordmark, or logotype for an academic unit, department, program, institute, center or office?
A No. To maintain consistency throughout the system, the program prohibits the use of any additional iconography, marks, artwork, wordmarks or logotypes outside of the approved logotypes, wordmarks and seal. University Communications can work with you to produce a lockup that meets these guidelines and your needs. Many department and program logo lockups have already been developed. Check with University Communications to access or request your lock-ups.

Q May I create an official Chico State acronym or an official wordmark by typing Chico State or an academic program’s name in Chronicle Display?
A No. The approved Chico State University Acronym and wordmark as well as Chico State academic unit wordmarks have been carefully and uniquely designed. The graphics files are available for downloading. If you need a new design, please contact University Communications.

Q Are the approved typefaces Chronicle and Gotham available for free?
A Licensing restrictions prevent us from distributing these typefaces for free. Chronicle is only to be used in approved logo lockups. Gotham may be used in creating new designs as either display headline or body text. An alternative is the free Google Font, Montserrat, which can be used when a licensed version of Gotham is not available.

Q Where can I get approved artwork to be in compliance with the Chico State Graphic Identity Program?
A You can download the approved artwork and assets by visiting www.csuchico.edu/ucomm.

Q Who owns the copyright to Chico State artwork?
A Chico State is the copyright owner by origination or assignment of any representation of a Chico State mark. Please contact University Communications or the Office of the President if you have further questions about ownership of copyrights.

Q How do I order letterhead, envelopes, and business cards?
A Contact University Printing Services at www.csuchico.edu/print or call 530-898-5992.
