Join us for EDXCHICO, a showcase of faculty from diverse fields presenting five-minute lessons that remind us why we love higher education. From the haunting mythology of La Llorona to letting your taste buds taste bugs, swing by to hear some of Chico State’s finest do what they do best—engage, enlighten, and inspire.

We hope you will drop by, grab a burger or a hot dog, some Shubert’s ice cream, and discover the joy of learning. It could lead into having the best first day ever.
